

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, October 10. 1722.

THE following Address of the High-Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, and Grand Jury, assembled at the Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, holden at Maidstone, in the County of Kent, the 2d of this Instant October, has been presented to His Majesty by Peter Burrell, Esq; High Sheriff, and Roger Meredith, Esq; with several Members of Parliament and Gentlemen of that County, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously, and all the Gentlemen had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty, The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, and Grand Jury, assembled at the Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, holden at Maidstone, in the County of Kent, the 2d Day of October, in the Ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign.

WE your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do humbly crave Leave to make a Tender of our just Abhorrence of those vile and unreasonable Practices lately carried on against your Majesty's Person and Government.

As we cannot too much applaud the Vigilance and Conduct of your Ministry in the timely detecting those horrid Conspiracies, so at the same time we cannot but with Contempt behold the poor Endeavours of a Set of Men to turn to Ridicule whatever is done for the Service of the Government, and by their seeming Incredulity to lull your Majesty's Subjects asleep, thereby to render their wicked Designs the more practicable and the more fatal.

It is a Matter of Amusement to see Persons of Distinction, under the strictest Ties of Honour and Conscience, engaging themselves in the direct Violation of them; and 'tis no less an Astonishment, that a Popish Arbitrary Government should be thought of for the Protection of a Protestant and Free People, which must necessarily bring upon them inevitable Ruin and Destruction.

Permit us therefore, most dread Sovereign, to assure your Majesty, that as we have always been ready to your Majesty's Government, so we shall ever be ready, to the utmost of our Power, to exert ourselves in the Support of your Majesty, and our happy Establishment in your Royal Line, which we heartily pray may continue to the latest Posterity.

Lisbon, Sept. 30. Letters from Cadiz of the 21st Instant advise, that the Dutch Squadron of Men of War was returned into that Bay from cruising against the Algerines, and that the Spanish Squadron was daily expected there from Alicant: The Governour of Cadiz has received Intelligence, that the Turkish Sultaness had anchored off Roses in Catalonia; but had not attempted the least Act of Hostility there.

Venna, Oct. 3. It is generally reported, that the Electoral Prince of Bavaria is arrived here, but that he keeps Incognito till he notifies his Arrival To-morrow to the Imperial Court, after which, he goes to the Favorita. His Wedding-Day continues fixed to the 5th Instant. The Archbishop of this City gives the Marriage-Benediction. The Cardinal de Saxe-Zeits is gone back to Prebourg to avoid the Ceremonial, the Emperor having given the Precedency to the Electoral Prince of Bavaria. The Bavarian Minister Count Thoring is gone to Day to the Favorita, to assist on the Part of his Electoral Highness at the Renunciation to the Succession of the Austrian Dominions, which the Archduchess has solemnly done in the same Manner as was performed by her Sister the Electoral Princess of Saxony at her Marriage. The Count has presented four Medals of Gold, each of the Value of a Ducat, to all the foreign Ministers who have congratulated him on Occasion of this Marriage. The strict Union between the Courts of France and Spain, gives Uneasiness here. Advices from Constantinople say, that the Turks are increasing their warlike Preparations, but 'tis hoped they are with regard only to the Motions of the Muscovites on the Frontiers of Georgia. On the 1st Instant, the Emperor entered into the 38th Year of his Age, and was complimented on that Occasion by all the Nobility and foreign Ministers.

Hambourg, Oct. 9. Letters from Moscow say, that the young Prince, Son of the deceased Czarowitz, continues with the Princess his Sister in that City, and that he diversifies himself almost every Day in exercising a Company of 30 young Livonians the Czar gave him. A great many good things are spoke of this young Prince. Before the Czar's Departure for Astracan, an Ordinance was published, forbidding under severe Penalties, the speaking in any wise concerning the deceased Czarowitz; and also enjoying under the like Penalties, all Persons who have in their Possession any Memoirs touching that unfortunate Prince, to bring them forthwith to the Chancery. The Muscovites seem not contented at the Czar's Order for taking away all the Images of Saints and their Niches, which stood before the Churches. The Duke of Holstein is returned from the Country to Moscow. Part of the Troops belonging to the Imperial Commissioners in Mecklenberg approach every Day nearer and nearer to the City of Schwerin, from whence 'tis concluded, that that Place must be obliged to surrender for want of Provisions. No Person is suffered to go out from thence. It is said also, that the City of Domitz is going to be blocked up to force that to surrender also by Famine, seeing the Duke of Mecklenberg persists still in opposing the Emperor's Mandates.

Hague, Oct. 13. In Answer to the Letter which the States-General wrote to the Government of Guelderland concerning the electing the Prince of Nassau-Orange for their Stadholder, the Deputies of Guelderland were ordered to return Answer to their High Mightinesses, that their Letter should be delivered to the States of the Province on the 27th Instant, their Assembly Day. Admiral Callenberg, the eldest Sea Officer in the State's Service, died here some Days past, in the 80th Year of his Age. M. de Sommersdyke is to be made Vice-Admiral in his Room, as the next in Seniority belonging to the Amsterdam Admiralty, Admiral Wassenaer being removed to the College of the Meuse, as the eldest Officer.

Paris, Oct. 14. The King will come hither from Versailles the 16th Instant in the Evening, and the next Day will set out for Rheims, where according to the Route settled his Majesty will arrive the 22d, and the Ceremony of his Coronation will be performed the 25th: On the 30th his Majesty is to leave Rheims, and returning by Villers Coterets is to be entertained there by the Duke of Orleans, and at Chantilly by the Duke of Bourbon, and will be back here the 9th of next Month. We have Letters from Rome of the 16th of September, N. S. which which advise that in a Consistory held the 23d several Bishops were approved; but the Promotion of Cardinals which was then expected to have been declared, was further suspended till a greater Number of Seats in that College should become vacant. The Ambassador of Malta had communicated to the Court of Rome the agreeable News of the taking of two Cruisers of Tripoli off Cape Passaro by the Maltese; the Crews of those Prizes consisting of 372 Men. Mon. Sig. Aldovrandi had been under Examination three Hours about Cardinal Alberoni's Affairs, and on the 27th a Congregation was to be held on that Subject in Cardinal Barbarini's Palace; the Process against the said Cardinal Alberoni being still kept on foot. On the 21st an Express from the Court of Vienna brought Dispatches to Cardinal Cienfuegos at Rome, and proceeded for Naples and Sicily with Orders to the Imperial Viceroy of those Kingdoms.
